

VISITOR INFORMATION

Broadgate Quarter is located on Snowden Street, less than 500 yards from the main Liverpool Street train terminal.

There are two principle entrances to the building, the 9 Appold Street reception is situated on the corner of Appold Street and Snowden Street. The 1 Snowden Street reception is situated on the Snowden Street pedestrian walkway.

9 Appold Street
London
EC2A 2AP

1 Snowden Street
London
EC2A 2DQ

Visitor Enquiries
0207 290 5327 / 28

GETTING TO BROADGATE QUARTER

PUBLIC TRANSPORT

Public transport is principally via Liverpool Street station (Central, Hammersmith & City, Metropolitan and Circle lines) which is just a few minutes' walk south of the building. Bank (Waterloo & City line) Moorgate (Northern line) and Shoreditch High Street (London overground) stations can also be found within a short walk away. Regular bus services to most destinations pass along nearby Bishopsgate at regular intervals.

TAXIS

There is no dedicated collection or drop off point for taxis, however, the area off Appold street can be used for arrival and a formal taxi rank is located approximately 50 yards further South along Appold Street.

PARKING

The entrance to the car park is located in Worship Street, adjacent to the loading bay entrance.

If onsite parking is required, please pre-arrange your requirement with your host in advance.

DISABLED ACCESS

The building has full disabled access and facilities.

VISITOR ACCESS / SECURITY

All visitors to the building should report to the appropriate reception where they will be given an access card. Passes are bespoke to Broadgate Quarter, individually numbered and contain definitive instructions on the reverse of actions to be taken in response to a fire alarm activation. Please return your pass upon departure from the premises.

